2021-2022 Season Outlook: *

The Naval Academy Softball team is looking forward to a relatively normal softball season this year with more games than last year! We have nine players returning from last year including outfielders Mack Ayala and Emily Spence, third baseman Jane Malafronte, pitcher Koko Antis, first basemen Sophie Smith and Alex Hand. Kiley McClure and Emma Petrich have returned to split time behind the plate, and Andi Freeman will get some time in the outfield. We've picked up two great pitchers in freshmen Olivia Calero and Hannah Lankford, and a quick shortstop Tatyana Bovarnick. Looking forward to squaring off against Air Force this weekend!!

Interesting/fun facts about your team:

We're all going to commission into the United States Navy or the United States Marine Corps when we graduate. We spend our summers doing summer training around the world! We do drill!!

2021-2022 Season Outlook: *

Although we are a very young team, we plan on dominating the field as we work together to express our strengths and develop our weaknesses. We've already started to show our strengths with leadership, open and honest communications, humility, integrity, and teamwork as we navigate this new season and the challenges it brings. We can't wait to get back on the field to represent our team and university with pride.

Interesting/fun facts about your team:
