2021-2022 Season Outlook: *

The ASU Lady Red Wolves made a strong push in the NCSA World Series last season, but ultimately finished 6th. Under the direction of a new head coach and a large group of returning players, A-State is already preparing to make it's 11th straight appearance to the NCSA World Series and bring home it's second championship trophy.

Interesting/fun facts about your team:

Arkansas State Softball is unique because the University does not have an NCAA affiliated team like many other teams, so the University and community are very supportive of the NCSA squad.

2021-2022 Season Outlook: *

We are looking to repeat the last couple seasons we have had with the help of being able to build up a consistent team over the last four seasons. We thrive on being friends and everyone having a passion for the game, creating a chemistry that has been lucky enough to carry us to the World Series and we are hoping to see Regionals and Georgia again this Spring.

Interesting/fun facts about your team:

Our field is down the street from Dunkin' Donuts and we will often have bets at practice that result in buying coffee for each other.
